

SCOPE OF WORK:Background

Fleet Management provide Eskom Rotek Industries' Business Units with vehicles to successfully execute their daily operation. Therefore, those vehicles should be Licensed and Certified fit, annually for their purpose. It is against this reason that ERI seek to find a service provider for providing Certificate of Fitness (COF) for the company's vehicles.

In general, the work covered by this contract includes the rates associated with Regular vehicle testing for Certificate of Fitness and Roadworthiness, weighing of vehicles, registrations of vehicles and number plates for a period of 5years on an As and When Required Basis.

Work Information

Regular vehicle testing for Certificate of Fitness and Roadworthiness, weighing of vehicles, registrations of vehicles and number plates.

- Service provider must comply to the level of competency required in the quote of Practice and Vehicle testing evaluation.
- Service provider must produce the Roadworthy certification as prescribe by the Appropriate registered and graded Vehicle testing stations in accordance with the SABS 047/2000 code of Practice.
- A supplier must produce a Grade A (authorized to examine and test motor vehicles of any class in terms of regulation 140).
- The supplier should be in accordance with Grade A motor vehicle testing of any class in terms of regulation 140 for roadworthiness.
- The service provider must be certified and accredited to test and comply with the homologation process standards Act No 29 of 1992.
- The testing station must be registered as per the road traffic Act 93 of 1996 regulation 130.
- A certificate of registration issued in terms of the ACT shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in their premises.
- Supplier should supply evidence of accredited test on a vehicle after homologation.
- Sufficient database to enable relevant model of type of the components/ancillary related to the above.
- Ensuring that quality management system implemented by the body builder is in accordance with the international standards (ISO 9000 series or similar).
- The supplier should provide a written declaration by the appointed inspectorate of Manufactures, importers, and Body Builders that satisfactory evidence has been submitted to register the Vehicle.

Name: Nelisiwe Kubheka

Logistics Services - Fleet Management Department

Date: 17/04/2024